

NORTHERN COOK CO. TO GET PAVINGS

Arlington Heights Road To Be Paved Thru Town North to Dundee Road

Northern Cook county will get its full share of county road paving this year, according to County Commissioner Homer J. Byrd, chairman of the road committee of the County board.

The contract for North State (Arlington Heights) road from Arlington Heights north limits to Dundee road was let March 7 to the Chicago Heights Coal company, lowest bidders, at a figure of $98,491.22. Plans for paving this road through Arlington Heights down to South street are now ready for letting.

The Willow road paving contract is let at $98,993.93, to the Krenn & Dato Construction company, low bidder.

Gunnison street paving (connecting Lawrence avenue) between Harlem avenue to about 68th court, is let to the Standard Paving company at $13,067.28.

The Greenwood-Pfingsten road, from Golf road to Lake avenue is to be paved, according to the letting of the contract to the Arlington Heights road company, at a price of $79,461.13. This company also will build a widened intersection at Kedzie and Granville avenues at $5,429.89.

Other projects include paving of Wolf road south of Higgins road; and the Higgins road gap near River road.

The paving of Barrington road from Barrington to Higgins road has been let to J. Mackler company at $164,529.75; and plans are being worked on for the extension of Barrington road down to Lake street road. Barrington road will relieve Algonquin road from some of the north and south traffic, which will go farther south, connecting with Chicago by more southerly routes.

An Oakton street section near the city is to be paved, according to contract let, by the Universal paving company, at a price of $27,103.41.

A bridge on Carpenter road is contracted for, the E. J. Albrecht company being low bidder at $54,985.80.

Lettings of contracts this month total about one million dollars, and will give employment to about 1800 men, Byrd announced. The road tax pays for all of these improvements; the only road work paid for out of the corporate fund of the county is for maintenance of old roads.

Another project, plans for which are being worked on, is the extension of Irving Park boulevard from Roselle to Elgin.

DEATH TAKES FOUR PEOPLE AT PALATINE

Auto Fumes Causes Death of Dan Plate; Dr. W. Babcock Passes On

Four residents of Palatine passed on the past week. Dan Plate, Palatine business man was killed by fumes from his car Friday afternoon. Dr. Wm. Babcock, a Palatine young man, whose office was in Chicago, died after a lingering illness. Herbert Schinkowsky, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schinkowsky, passed away at a Chicago hospital following an attack of spinal meningitis. Mrs. Wm. Tegmeier, an old resident, was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon. She passed away Saturday morning after an illness of three months duration.

Dan H. Plate, engaged in the electrician business, was found on the floor of his garage about six o'clock last Friday evening. He had left his house at 2:30, stating that he intended to work upon his car, the wiring of which had become shorted. Mrs. Plate says nothing more of him and when he did not come in to supper, she went to the garage and found his lifeless body at the rear of the car where he had been working upon the tail light. She immediately notified his brother Martin Plate, who summoned a physician, who gave it as his opinion that Mr. Plate had been dead about an hour. The ignition of the car was turned on but the car was not running at the time Martin Plate arrived upon the scene. An inquest was held Saturday morning, the verdict being accidental death.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at Highland Grove church with interment in the family lot.

Spinal Meningitis Takes Child Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schinkowsky had the misfortune to lose their three year old son, Herbert Tuesday morning when he passed on in a Chicago hospital from spinal meningitis. The young fellow was taken to a Chicago hospital just prior to the arrival of a little brother in the home. The funeral will be held Friday from Karstens Funeral Home at 1:30 and at the Palatine Lutheran church at two o'clock.

Dr. William Babcock, Dies Dr. William Babcock, 40 years old, prominent dentist and well-known throughout this entire territory, died at 11:30 a. m. Friday morning immediately following an operation at the Garfield Park hospital, Chicago.

The body was taken to the Danieleson Funeral parlors at Palatine from which place the funeral was held Monday afternoon.

Palatine High School Board Cuts Salaries To Keep School Open

The Palatine township high school board met in special session Wednesday afternoon to consider its financial situation. The 1930 taxes collected amount to only about 40 per cent of the levy. The board was faced with closing down the school or making drastic economies. A reduction of 10 per cent in all salaries, including superintendent, teachers, janitor and secretary of the board was ordered effective at once. Further reductions or adjustments are probable before new contracts are offered the faculty for next year.

Need More Men in Community Chorus

The Community Chorus of Arlington Heights held an enthusiastic meeting Monday night, with a number of new members coming in to practice on "The Messiah" by Handel, although actual singing of "Messiah" Chorus will begin next Monday night.

By the number of ladies who have lately joined, a particular call is now given out for more men's voices.

A party is planned for April 25, in the Methodist church parlors; also for a concert some Sunday night this month.

Rehearsals Monday nights are in the music room of the high school, at 8 o'clock. Dues are only one time a week.

STATE TAKES OVER RELIEF WORK HERE

Illinois Commission Will Put Paid Workers in Field

April first the state of Illinois through the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission will take over all the relief work in the suburban communities.

The state commission which will have charge of the distribution of the $18,000,000 emergency relief fund voted at the special session of the legislature will work thru the Cook County Bureau of Public Welfare.

Extra workers will be put on the payroll and will be assigned to the various townships and will take over full responsibility for the relief work in the townships.

The Cook County Joint Emergency Relief Fund whose voluntary contributions have been used up in the tremendous amount of relief attended to this winter will turn over their cases to the new organization.

The Arlington Heights Relief committee has received no notification of the change. The same situation exists in Mount Prospect, where the local committee handles its own funds.

The Arlington Heights Relief committee functions as a purely local proposition, but Supervisor Charles Grandt from now on will work under the new state organization, and must sign all orders. Calls for help are increasing right along instead of decreasing, Mr. Grandt says, for so many remain out of work and have to eat just the same.

C. Hart, for the past two years chairman of the Palatine Relief Committee, which has handled the relief work in Palatine township, when asked how the new arrangement would affect the local committee said: "We are through after April 1. The Joint Emergency Relief Fund of which we are the local unit has instructed us to turn over our families to the Cook County Bureau of Public Welfare as the Joint Emergency Fund which was financing our share of the local work after the funds were raised locally were exhausted is not to take part in the distribution of relief under the new plans of the state commission, our source of revenue is automatically cut off and we are through."

"I have received word from the Joint Emergency Fund that all responsibility for unemployment relief is to be taken over by the workers for the Bureau of Public Welfare. Our committee feels that we have done a worth while work. We have done our best under the conditions and we appreciate the fine cooperation of the general public."

"Now the state funds are to be used only through public administrative bodies we are automatically out of the picture, and I wish the new organization all the success in the world in meeting the needs of the people of this township."

The relief work in Palatine township has taken an immense amount of time and work and the volunteer workers who have handled the burden of our families to the Cook County Bureau of Public Welfare will now be replaced by paid force since state funds will now carry on the work of relief among the unemployed.

Arlington-Palatine Couple United in Home Ceremony

The bride was prettily attired in a pale green crepe gown, her bouquet pink sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a pale blue gown and carried a bouquet of tea roses.

Everything was prettily arranged and after congratulations the guests dispersed until Saturday, the 25th, when a large reception was held in the home of the bride's parents at Palatine. There was dancing and games, and "all went merry as a marriage bell."

The bride was prettily attired in a pale green crepe gown, her bouquet pink sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a pale blue gown and carried a bouquet of tea roses.

Money paid locally is distributed to the schools and other tax bodies without having to go through the County treasurer's office.

Those failing to pay taxes this week will have to do so later in Chicago.

OPEN COOK COUNTY ANTI CRIME BUREAU

Country Towns Police Depts. Link with New Service

Better police protection and investigation of crime for the suburban towns of Cook county is expected to be brought about by the forming this week of the Cook County Bureau of Criminal Information and Detection, according to Attorney John A. Swanson. The Bureau grew out of a meeting at the Congress Hotel last week of 82 mayors, police magistrates and police chiefs from nearly all the suburban communities.

This Bureau, while in no way an attempt to form a "metropolitan police force," will cooperate with the local police departments and other village authorities by furnishing, without cost, special investigators and detectives in such cases as requested by the local police authorities, said Mr. Swanson. In addition a clearing house of police record information on known criminals, especially those who habitually operate in the suburbs, will be made.

A committee of suburban town police heads was formed at the meeting, with Chief William O. Freeman of Evanston acting as chairman. On his committee are Chiefs W. M. Peterson of Winnetka, Jack Schupert of Calumet City, Charles Holmes of Niles Center, W. Soderling of River Forest and Jos. Prendergast, chief of the Union Station police force.

Attending the meeting and cooperating in the organization were Chiefs Geo. Henning of Palatine; Harold Johnson of Park Ridge; Peters of Barrington, and Christ Wegener of Des Plaines.

Meeting with the police heads were State's Attorney Swanson and Pat Roche, his chief investigator, who will have charge of the new bureau, and Assistant State's Attorney Edw. Martin of Maywood; Robert Donigan of Evanston; Ross Lee Laird and Richard V. Jackson of Chicago.

Roche, the famous investigator, pointed out that such a bureau with all suburban communities cooperating, would not only save money for the villages, in investigation cases, but would give them a much greater scope of detection of criminals in a county wide, or indeed often nationwide way. For example, he said, if five suburban towns reported a case of a similar nature at about the same time, the culprits could be much easier to apprehend than if each village's authorities worked independently on such cases.

Heinrich Schoenbeck, Well Known Farmer, Is Passed Beyond

Mr. Heinrich Schoenbeck, 204 West St. James street, passed away Friday, March 25, at his home, after a lingering illness, at the age of 68 years, six months, one day.

Two sons were born to this union: Mr. William Schoenbeck and Mr. Ed. Schoenbeck, both living near Arlington Heights. Oct. 3, 1895 Mr. Schoenbeck was married the second time to Miss Dorthea Moehling, who preceded him in death May 15, 1916; three children were born of this second union: Mrs. Alma Meyer and Mr. Alfred Schoenbeck, also one son who died in infancy.

Mr. Schoenbeck was a farmer, residing north of Arlington Heights until about three years ago, when he moved into town.

FARM BUREAU PLANS CREDIT CORPORATION

Two Meetings Held Last Week; Farmers Show Interest

Formation of an Intermediate Credit corporation in Cook county, aimed at taking care of intermediate loans, is the topic of conversation amongst Cook county farmers at the present time.

Farm Bureau members are operating, through the Federal Land Bank at St. Louis, the privilege of executing loans on real estate, which through the past several years has worked out advantageously as long-time loans. They also in the past have been able to execute their 60 to 90-day loans through their banks, making capital available for their immediate needs. They have had, however, and even less at the present time—no provision for intermediate loans, or loans for a source of capital for six months, or a year or two. This Intermediate Credit corporation is designed to take care of such needs.

The latest information as pointed out by the Farm Advisor, O. G. Barrett, is that to set up and function properly, it is necessary to incorporate at $25,000. Of this amount, a portion may be made available by the purchase of stock in the Credit corporation by the Secretary of Agriculture; since the recent passage of an act making a fund available for the establishment of credit through such means as Cook county is now considering.

The portion borrowed from the Secretary of Agriculture by the Cook county farmers, though not definitely assured, but reported, must be returned within a period of two years; so that within that time the full $25,000 of capitalization represented by the loan would be repaid to the proposed Credit corporation by the Cook county people.

Immediately upon the conclusion of incorporation and the deposit of $25,000 of government bonds or Federal Land Bank bonds with the Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Louis, the Cook County Intermediate Credit corporation would have a loaning power or discount privilege on a basis of three to one.

The board of directors of the Cook County Farm Bureau at a recent meeting voted that stock shares be sold in $25 denominations, with a limit of fifty shares to any one individual. Following the sale of stock, the farmers would have sufficient interest in this project to absorb the necessary amount, the stockholders will be assembled; and the officers and directors, according to the regulation plan, will be elected to fulfill the activities of the organization. A manager or appraiser will be required to show to the active farmers the value of the project.

Mr. Barrett states that the very fact that makes such a credit corporation necessary, likewise makes it more difficult to dispose of the stock than would have been the case two years ago; and it is yet to be determined whether the need is sufficient to justify, and the ability of the farmers, such as will make it possible to raise the necessary capital to bring the corporation into being.

"Your interest and your expression will be appreciated by the organization that is going ahead with a plan of service to Cook County farmers," said Mr. Barrett to everyone interested in the Credit plan.

Meyer's Name Goes on Primary Ballot

Mandamus Proceedings were necessary, but the name of Oswald Meyer will appear upon the Democratic primary ballots for precinct 4 of the village of Winnetka.

Mr. Meyer was notified that as a result of objections filed, his name had been dropped off the ballot. This candidate is supporting the candidacy of Mr. Igoe, to which organization of the county clerk. Legal machinery was soon set in motion and friends of Mr. Meyer and supporters of Mr. Igoe will find his name upon the ballot.

The Igoe campaign committee has candidates for three, four and five of Wheeling township. They are Arthur H. Dieball in No. 3; Oswald Meyer in No. 4 and Herbert Lesch in No. 5.

A somewhat similar situation arose in the latter precinct where Mr. Lesch's name was at first dropped, only to be reinstated when similar objections were made to his opponent.

BANDIT WRECKS CAR AS POLICE CAPTURE HIM

Race from Barrington Ends at Palatine as Car Turns Over and Burns

Shortly after four a. m. Wednesday morning a gas station at Crystal Lake was held up by two bandits. Word was flashed to the Barrington police, who in turn notified Officer Bailey of the State Police.

The Barrington officers took their stations on roads passing thru the business district while Officer Bailey went out on the highway. Recognizing the car, he gave chase and fired a number of shots. He was close upon the bandits when the car of the latter ran up on the curb at the curve north of the Palatine high school and turned over. The car caught fire and was completely destroyed. Officer Bailey only found one man, and who in some manner escaped injury. He was taken to Crystal Lake and identified by the gas station attendant. The bandit drove an Oldsmobile with a license issued to a Chevrolet.

The meeting was called by the Main Street Crusade, the new cooperative movement among independent business people, to save themselves from ruin; but which overlies the bounds of self-interest into a movement for economic freedom and plenty for everyone.

The headline speakers were Meyer Fink, Progressive Republican candidate for nomination for Congress from the 7th Congressional district, and Winfield H. Caslow, the Main Street Crusader, who speaks twice a day over Station WJJD, at 1 and 8:15 p. m., except Saturdays and Sunday.

The address of welcome was given by C. A. Mead, barber and beauty shop proprietor in Des Plaines. He introduced a F. Buenger, local field man of the Crusade, who presided thereafter, and will be chairman of the campaign. Wm. Dombrow, another field man, sketched beginnings of this movement in suburbs of Chicago.

Fink Stirrs Hearers Meyer Fink, a lawyer and professor in Loyola university, electrified his audience with a brilliant address, laying open conditions today, and tearing apart tradition.

"The tariff is no longer a protection to the American people—it merely protects those who are plundering the American people," was one shot from Mr. Fink. "The monopolies in the distributing field are most dangerous of all forms of monopoly, because they most affect the average man," he said later. Rebellion against chain monopolies first got up steam in the south, because people there are more independent and their newspapers and radio are not so controlled by monopolies, Mr. Fink explained. A fight was waged in the Carolinas and carried to the Supreme court before anti-chain store legislation was declared constitutional. Mr. Fink advocates taxes on chain merger merchandise that will make such business unprofitable, and promises to introduce legislation to bring this about. Newton Jenkins for U. S. Senator is also a candidate representing this Crusade.

MASS MEETING DEMANDS PROSPERITY RETURN AND ECONOMIC INDEPENDENCE

"Prosperity Month" Drive Planned for Many Communities in May; Aroused Business Men Pack Huge Des Plaines Hall

'LIBERTARIAN POSTS' PLANNED

See Monopolies, Chains, Impoverishing, Enslaving People, Communities; To Get Demands from Political Parties or Form New

As about 700 independent business men of scores of cities and villages packed the large auditorium of the Masonic temple in Des Plaines Tuesday night, a united Prosperity Drive for the month of May was decided upon.

And this is only one detail of a nation-wide demand for economic democracy that is designed to sweep away monopolies and retail chain mergers, reestablish the opportunity for the average man to take good care of his family, and create also a revolution in politics at the November election if not at the June conventions, it was proclaimed.

The meeting was called by the Main Street Crusade, the new cooperative movement among independent business people, to save themselves from ruin; but which overlies the bounds of self-interest into a movement for economic freedom and plenty for everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Goodrich of Wyconda, Mo., came Saturday to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Crane, but were called home Monday on account of the serious illness of Mr. Goodrich's father.

Crusade Looks to Principle Mr. Caslow stated that he is "coward enough" that he wants to know he is on right principles before he goes ahead in Crusade work. "I assumed that what had been good in government for 65 years, and good in society for 65 years must be good in business!" Since business is just as much a need as government, and as taxes keep government alive, so profits keep business alive—and must be retained in the regions or communities where they originate; Mr. Caslow stressed. Manufacturing is a national business, wholesaling and regional business, retailing a local business; and in the natural and right course of events, each takes a profit after paying the help decent wages; and the profits circulate around in the territory of each.

Sam Silverman, business manager of the Crusade spoke on the need of building up a financial reserve for the needs of the work this summer. Mr. Caslow then continued explaining the work the Crusade is doing, broadcasting twice daily over a 20,000 watt station WJJD, having 30 field men besides the office force and speaker. "This summer is 'Just before the battle, Mother.' Next November we are going to see America go to her Yorktown or to her Waterloo. We have the problem before us of getting recognition. We are up against the political situation and have got to meet it head on. If the Republicans do nothing in June, and the Democrats do the same, then there is a chance for us to do something by the 4th of July!" (Applause).

Prosperity Month In local communities the first week in May will be Retailers' Week; the second week, Manufacturers' Week; the third, Farm-Laborers' Week; the fourth, Consumers' Week; the fifth, Libertarian Week, followed by an anti-chain store drive. The time is soon coming when the chain store customer is going to find himself or herself unpopular, he predicted.

LOST 20 LBS. OF FAT IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

an Easter party given Saturday evening by Miss Elma Towne, Farm Bureau office secretary. Miss Towne called it a farm bureau get together because all the office force were there. It was a happy party and with a cargo of good wishes they presented Mrs. D. G. Beatty with a useful and pretty traveling bag. It was with assurances of missing her, and hope for her safe journey they wished her God speed and a not too distant "back home" coming.

Miss Harriet Barrett entertained a few friends at a bridge party at her home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Jayne of Wheaton, were home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rau.

Mr. L. B. Wayman and Ole Johnson, got back to Arlington Heights Thursday last week. Mr. Wayman found plenty to do on his land, and new home down in Texas, putting on finishing to the house. On their return trip, had not one single accident, fine roads and fine weather all the way until they got to Joliet when they met a regular old Illinois snow storm. Fine weather in Texas, summer in the time of our winter. Ah, well, neighbor Wayman some of us have to stay here to support our public officials and pay the taxes.

EASTERN STAR

After the regular stated meeting of March 24, our Metron very pleasantly entertained the Chapter with a card and luncheon party which was much enjoyed by about sixty guests after which a buffet luncheon was served.

At the next regular meeting April 14, the usual business will be transacted.

Our Entertainment Committee has arranged for the annual Cake Walk. It will be remembered the one held last year was well worth attending and this one promises to exceed that one in many features.

As a matter of news, it is gratifying to state that the average attendance of our Chapter is increasing with each meeting.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 3.

The Golden Text was, "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. . . . Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way" (Psalms 119:29, 104).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many.) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him" (1 Cor. 8: 5, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God cannot result in evil. As God Himself is good and is Spirit, goodness and spirituality must be immortal. Their opposites, evil and matter, are mortal error, and error has no creator" (p. 277).

Easter Services At Presbyterian Church Successful

The Easter services were well attended in all our Christian churches; I may honestly say a larger attendance than ever before. As each church has its special report, can only speak briefly of the one our family attended in the Presbyterian church following Holy Week. Services were well observed by a good attendance.

Friday night one hundred seventy-seven partook of the sacrament in communion. Sunday the church was filled to overflowing at morning service. Rev. Kossack gave an Easter sermon. The music by the choir and special solo numbers was beautiful and intelligently and impressively given. Sixteen were welcomed into the membership of the church. A most encouraging feature of the Easter service. One of the High school teachers joined with his Sunday school class of boys. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hank, was christened. The offering was generous. Indeed it would seem that pastor and people have great reason to thank God and take courage in work for the Master.

In the evening the large choir gave a sacred concert of selections from two cantatas, Shelley's "Death and Life," and the "Resurrection Story," interspersed with Scripture readings. The minister, John Allen directed the chorus, and S. E. Elfeld accompanied with the pipe organ; these numbers were pleasing and effective. Solos in the cantata were sung by Donald Costain, C. I. Davis, F. E. Briggs, Mrs. Jos. Roth, Miss Fern Lorenzen and Miss Gertrude Lorenzen. Miss Fern Lorenzen and Homer Evans sang extra solos. The concert seemed a fitting end to a very satisfying Easter in the church.

Civil War Veteran's 93rd Birthday Celebrated at Home

Mr. Robert Reed, our oldest Civil War veteran, was duly honored by his children, in his home, to celebrate his 93rd birthday anniversary, Wednesday, March 23, 1932.

The Reed home on East Euclid avenue, reached by a long avenue bordered by trees, the house on a rise of ground, is placed in the true English style, away from the dust and noise of the public.

It would be only correct to say this hospitable home kept open doors throughout the day; at least the afternoon and evening; open to old time friends some who were here when the town was known by the name of Dunton. The home was appropriately decorated with flags and patriotic symbols. The table, so prettily spread had a cover of the American flag with the G. A. R. symbols displayed. There were many beautiful flowers, plants, masses of cut flowers, one large sheaf of roses from the Woman's Relief Corps of Willich Post of Des Plaines of which Mr. Reed has always been a member, and the Relief Corps with which Mrs. Reed so long worked as a faithful member.

Mrs. Welles from Chicago, an old time friend of the family and beautiful singer, sang "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground" and other stirring patriotic songs with Mr. Roscoe Reed accompanying at the piano. In addition to the music, Dr. C. P. Draper gave a humorous reading, a sort of take off on old bachelors which was received with echoes of laughter and as nobody in that class was present, none were hit.

The dinner was bountiful and of the choicest and best. There were two large cakes, mountains of sweetness decorated with the national colors, and the G. A. R. emblem. Surely a vast contrast to an old soldier's memory of war time hard tack and stale bacon, or less appetizing fare. In addition to the beautiful potted plants and flowers forming such an attractive background to the feast, there were many other gifts to cheer the father's heart from children, grandchildren and friends.

Early History
Mr. Robert Reed was one of the early citizens of this community before the name of this village was changed from Dunton to Arlington Heights. He enlisted in the 88th Illinois Infantry, the 2nd Board of Trade Regulars (Co. K). Mr. Reed participated in the battles of Stone River, Perryville, Chickamauga and Lookout Mountain. A service of long marches, fierce battles, struggles and hardship worthy a true patriot.

Mr. Reed has been a worthy and highly respected citizen. Mrs. Reed was a woman of gentle bearing and a true helpmate to her soldier husband. Well may their children "rise up and call them blessed." Of their six children now living, all were present: Mrs. Lauchlan Stuart (Carrie), Mrs. Wm. Poehls (Gertrude), Mrs. Henry Scheutler (Lilian), Mrs. Joseph Melzer (Edna), sons, Victor and Roscoe Reed. There were the eight grandchildren and one great grandchild, Ronald Stewart, who came with his mother from Cleveland, Ohio.

The out of town guests beside the relatives were Mrs. Edith Porter, and Mrs. Welles of Chicago. Several old time residents took this occasion to join Mr. Reed's family in honoring one of our Civil War Veterans who is most deserving of our respect and grateful appreciation. One can but question why since the death of Village officials is deemed the time for displaying our nation's flag, why the 93rd birthday of one who sacrificed his plans and early hopes in life to brave the fierce warfare for the preservation of our undivided union, our nation and our flag, why not unfurl all our banners in honor of the day? We will study up the rules for displaying our country's flag and promise Mr. Reed if he will abide with this community until he reaches his one hundredth anniversary, all the flags in the place shall wave in his honor! Meantime we heartily congratulate Mr. Reed on his 93rd birthday and assure him as dear Mrs. Kennicott so aptly said, "The first hundred years are the hardest" to live.

We cover the dead with flowers, While we too oft forget, To honor living heroes ours, Who with us are living yet.

That day of early sacrifice, When life was fair and bright; When young men went to pay the price, For true loyalty and right.

A pretty gesture 'tis to give Our flowers for the dead, Yet tribute while our soldiers live, Is due from us instead.

Few of us vision that far day, Do realize the need, When our country called, without delay, Answered brave Comrade Reed!

MRS. LILIAN D. KLEHM HONOR GUEST AT PARTY AT MR. AND MRS. KOST'S

The trustees of the Presbyterian church and the cast of the play given March 4, in the Parish hall under their auspices gave a delightful party Wednesday (a-t week in honor of Mrs. Lilian Draper Klehm, who successfully directed the play, "George In a Jam." The party was most hospitably entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kost. The game was bridge in all its bewildering brain tests. The prizes were pleasing and refreshments just the most appetizing and acceptable daintily served. It was a party without a flaw, a genial appreciative group of happy people who were out to be good natured and genial and just share a jolly good time.

A pretty gesture of the affair was presenting the honor guest of the party, Mrs. Lilian Draper Klehm with a beautiful purse with her name engraved on it; and I'm sure if not filled with coin it was brimful of good wishes. This was a well deserved appreciation and we are sure Mrs. Klehm was made happy by the gift, the party and the hospitality of host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Kost.

Parent Auxiliary Boy Scouts Meet

The Parent auxiliary Boy Scouts met Wednesday last week with Mrs. E. B. Dearie, Park Lane, Stonegate. There was a most encouraging attendance and much interest shown in the work. Three new members were received. Mrs. Carleton Smith, Mrs. George Schaefer, and Mrs. Peter Thomas. There was one visitor, Mrs. Allen Schulte. Mrs. Miles, the president led the business period in her enthusiastic and hopeful manner. Plans for a May party left with the entertainment committee were discussed; the committee were Mesdames Dearie, Arthur McElhose, Tingley, Madison, McNair. Another pleasing feature of the meeting was a talk by Mr. Arnold Hottinger, of Buddy's studio, Drury Lane. He demonstrated the construction and use of hot plate plates. All listened with appreciative interest.

The hostess, Mrs. Dearie, assisted by Mrs. Koplun, served choice refreshments. These, too, were heartily appreciated and loosened a cheerful flow of genial happy conversation in which all participated. There was a delightful spirit of "forward move"; new courage to take up the work of the organization with new purpose and courage. Much is said in praise of the cordial hospitality of their hostess and the success of the social and helpful meeting.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, April 27, with Mrs. M. F. Madison, Mount Prospect. ELK GROVE SCHOOL, DIST. 59 Don't forget our bunco and dance Thursday, April 7, beginning at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome. There will also be refreshments.

It will be held at Schiller Park. Our spelling contestant, Wilma Wille, is busy at spelling words. Mr. Wille, Mr. Landmeier, Miss Jacobs, Wesley Landmeier and Bernice Fluger went to the Art Museum last Wednesday, March 23.

The Frigidaire Has The Spotlight

The spotlight of the electric refrigeration industry rests upon Frigidaire, following its recent announcement of sweeping price reductions ranging down to as low as $139 f. o. b. Dayton, according to Otto Landmeier, Hardware, local dealer. "For the first time in the history of electric refrigeration it is possible to buy a household refrigerator of known value, backed by General Motors at such low prices," he said. "Already we have received scores of inquiries from people who were amazed to learn that a genuine Frigidaire with all its known value, dependability and superiorities can be had at present prices. This is possible only because the company, the largest manufacturer of electric refrigerating equipment in the world, has considered manufacturing economies resulting from a greatly increased volume of business."

According to word received from Dayton, the Frigidaire plants have already been placed upon a larger production schedule, necessitated by the greatly increased volume of business which immediately followed the sensational price reductions. "Any person who will stop at our store to see the present Frigidaire models and judge them on both a price and value standard will immediately recognize the reasons why the recent price reductions caused such universal interest and how Frigidaire through tremendous manufacturing volume and quantity buying of materials can make such remarkable prices possible" the local dealer said.

Village Board Proceedings

With "other dates" that evening and with a blizzard out of doors, the Arlington Heights village board had a quiet and short meeting Monday night, March 21. All members, except trustee Klehm, were present.

Mr. Browne, of Searsdale, presented a petition in which the property owners of that subdivision gave their approval to the removal of one of the ornamental entrances from the immediate vicinity of the gas station to the last street in Scarborough. The petition was referred to the judiciary committee to report at the next meeting.

The water committee reported various repairs and extension of service line to sidewalks.

The street committee reported cleaning of streets from broken limbs and repairs of cave-in and a sewer crossing.

The finance committee reported for payment of bills and payroll totaling $1,718.33, which were ordered paid, time warrants being authorized for large accounts.

April 15th was fixed as the deadline for vehicle tags.

Village funds in the Peoples State Bank in the account of E. H. Bolte, treasurer, were ordered transferred to the new treasurer and assistant.

A motion was passed directing the bonding company to collect village funds in the closed Arlington Heights State Bank.

A resolution prepared in accordance with a new state law regarding depositories of public funds, was passed. The resolution designated the Northern Trust Co. and the Peoples State Bank as depositories for funds of the village.

Property Owners Demand Protection from Dogs

As the Police Department is flooded with complaints regarding stray dogs, I ask the co-operation of every dog owner in the Village to help enforce the following ordinances regarding dogs:

Section 939. FIERCE DOGS. If any owner or possessor of a fierce or dangerous dog shall permit the same to run or be at large at any time, within the limits of the Village of Arlington Heights, to the danger or annoyance of any of the inhabitants, such owner or possessor shall be fined not less than five dollars for each offense; and upon a second conviction of such owner or possessor, for such offense, the said dog shall be killed and buried.

Section 941. KILLING DANGEROUS DOGS. It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police to kill all dogs as provided in this article and to superintend the removal and burial of the same, and to enforce the provisions of this article.

Section 944. DOG TAX.—L. CENSE. Every person who owns or keeps a dog within the Village shall report to the village Clerk annually within thirty days after the first day of January in each year his name and address, and shall give the name, breed, color and sex of each and every dog owned or kept by such person and shall pay to the Village Clerk the sum of $1.50 for each dog, and shall cause such dog or dogs to be registered for license in the office of the Village Clerk.

Section 945. BITCHES IN HEAT. Any person, agent or other person at whose house or premises, building, store or dwelling place any bitch is usually found or permitted to remain, or any person having or exercising agency or ownership in or over any bitch who shall permit or suffer her to run at large while she is in heat, in any street or public place, whether she have the license or muzzle required in this article on her or not, shall be fined not less than two dollars nor more than two hundred, and every bitch found running at large in violation hereof, is hereby deemed a nuisance, and said dog shall be taken up and impounded in the manner provided by the Code of this Village, but if such dog cannot safely be taken up and impounded such dog may be slain by any policeman.

As I dislike to take drastic action, it becomes my duty to enforce the above ordinances unless these nuisances are abated at once.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl H. Skoog, Chief of Police.

Antlers Doubly Forked

The large size of the ears and the curious antlers when disturbed suggested the name mule deer, says Nature Magazine. The antlers are doubly forked. In the early spring the red-brown deer leave the bands with which they have spent the winter and choose secluded canyons or wooded glades where their one to three fawns are born.

OBITUARY

"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life" Rev. 2. 10. Ewald Gatzke, son of Emil Gatzke and Anna, nee Fleming, was born in Chicago, Feb. 4, 1915 and received into communion with the Trane church through Holy Baptism. After attending the parochial school, he was confirmed in Jerusalem Ev. Luth. church, Morton Grove. A few months ago the Gatzke family moved to Elk Grove and have since attended St. Johns Lutheran church.

Ewald was a senior in Town Maine High school and was looking forward to his graduation. Our Savior had different plans; not graduation from school but from life.

About five weeks ago the deceased contracted influenza and after lingering for weeks at death's door the Lord sent His angel to escort him homeward into the heavenly kingdom.

Ewald passed away amid the prayers of his loved ones March 21, at the age of 17 years, 1 month and 17 days, and was laid to his rest in the cemetery of the Lutheran church, Elk Grove, March 24.

He leaves to mourn his early departure his parents, three brothers, and a sister, and other relatives, and a host of friends. "Lord Thy will be done."

The funeral sermon based on Rev. 2. 10 was delivered by Rev. F. L. Gehrs.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for all the kindness and sympathy shown by our friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement.
Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gatzke, and Family.

Many Attend Annual Milk Assn. Meeting

Nearly 5,000 farmers packed into the Auditorium Theatre, Chicago, March 15 to attend the 7th Annual meeting of the Pure Milk Association, dairymen's cooperative marketing association in the Chicago milk shed. Besides the speaking program, which included addresses by Harry Hartke, Vera McCrea, and Doctor Herman Bundesen, much important business was transacted by the official delegates.

A policy that will materially strengthen the Association was passed upon. The delegates instructed the Board of Directors to prepare to have signed, and put into effect an amendment to the membership contract which will provide for the creation and administration of a special trust fund—but without changing the association to a pooling organization—for the benefit of those members who from time to time may be without a market for their basic milk through no fault of their own. This trust fund is to be financed by a levy of not more than five cents per hundred pounds of basic milk delivered by members. The receipts from this assessment shall not be mingled with the general assets of the Association, but shall constitute a particular trust fund under control of the Board of Directors for the benefit of the members. The securing of contract signatures carrying this amendment to the membership agreement will be secured from each individual member within the next several weeks.

The By-laws were amended to provide for expulsion of members because of breach of contract or for acts injurious to the Association. Other By-laws pertaining to membership were amended to be consistent with the expulsion amendment. The portions of the By-laws affected are Section 5, Section 6, and Section 7.

All officers will remain the same with exception of the Director from District 8. George Swanberg succeeds A. J. Boyle as director from that district.

Chrysler Bids for Ford Chevrolet Car Business

On the basis of what is claimed to be a "bigger package for the money" than any other manufacturer of low-priced cars has yet offered, Walter P. Chrysler admitted today that he is out to get as large a portion of Ford and Chevrolet business as can be obtained in 1932, with the new and finer Plymouth according to word received here today from Mr. Chrysler by Phil Engkeling, local De Soto dealer who sells and services Plymouth cars in this territory.

Stating to his local dealers that the finest engineers in the automotive industry had been busy for more than three years in developing and producing the new and finer Plymouth motor car which is to be announced within a few days, Mr. Chrysler believes that he has succeeded in producing a car superior to anything that the lowest-price field has yet seen.

"Better values in every commodity and in every useful article are obtainable today," according to his communication. "Not only have prices been materially lowered, but values have been increased as well. "It is plain business to recognize that every manufacturer has borne a portion of the cost of increased quality with lower prices. In common with other manufacturers, I propose to bear a large portion of the cost of the unusually high quality in appearance, performance and mechanical excellence of the new Plymouth. "The public now more than at any other time is quick to weigh values and lowered costs. On this basis, I am confident that Plymouth will secure a goodly portion of the lowest price volume in 1932."

"TREAT THE BANKS FAIR" SAYS SWANSON

Candidate for States Attorney Gives View Point

"State's Attorney John A. Swanson has adopted an attitude and policy towards banks and bankers, which we, as business men, believe to be highly commendable and inclined to inspire confidence among bankers and depositors alike in times like these when trust in our financial structure is so important."

"So reads a statement issued by J. F. Cornelius, president of the Business Men's Non-Partisan League, a county-wide organization. The Swanson statement, which shows that about five per cent of the total deposits of the banks of Cook county are in liquidation, of which surely a considerable share should be returned to the depositors, ought to definitely put at rest the wild rumors going the rounds that 'nearly all bank deposits are tied up'."

"It is our fear that stable banks of this county, which have weathered the storm of the depression and which now contain 95 per cent of the total deposits of all banks, open or closed, may be harmed by the continued bombardment of banks and bankers which is being carried on by the headquarters of a political opponent of the State's Attorney."

"In consequence the Business Men's Non-Partisan League asked the State's Attorney for a statement indicating his viewpoint in this important matter, and he replied:

Only 5 Per Cent of Deposits Tied Up

"It seems to me that the general public, reading so much in newspapers or listening to blasts from certain radio speakers will probably become suspicious of all banks, and these politicians who are making capital of the depression are certainly fanning this fire of distrust. The public is likely to get the idea that nearly all the banks in Cook county have closed, while as a matter of fact, banks having deposits of only slightly over five per cent of the total deposits in the county are now in process of liquidation, this circumstance occurring over a period of the past two years. Of course, not all of this five per cent will be lost to the depositor either, as the assets of these banks in hands of receivers are being liquidated steadily, and a considerable portion of the assets should eventually be returned to the depositors. Several of the banks which closed paid 100 cents on the dollar."

"According to the official figures obtained from the National Bank Examiner's and state auditor's offices and other authentic sources, the total deposits in all national and state banks in Cook county as of January 1, 1932, amounted to $2,200,639,734. The total deposits of banks in liquidation was $122,765,059. This is about five per cent of the total deposits and when liquidation is completed the percentage should be considerably smaller."

"It seems certain that in some of these bank closings, conspiracy and fraud have entered in, but this is a comparatively small percentage of the total, as in many cases the liquidations which were properly and honestly managed were compelled to close because depositors became hysterical and created runs on these banks or the institutions were affected by general business conditions over which the bankers had no control."

"The State's Attorney has instituted proceedings against these banks and bankers wherein fraud is indicated and will push these prosecutions vigorously. Several bankers of this type are already in the penitentiary, and there are several more waiting to be tried. For example, in the Bain bank case, indictments of the heads of this banking chain have been obtained by the State's Attorney, and cases of this sort will be tried just as soon as the courts will permit."

"Incidentally, the political warfare about banks and bankers is actually delaying the trials of some of these men because their attorneys were in court the other day and declared that under present circumstances it was impossible for their clients to obtain fair trials. Over the objection of the State's Attorney, the judges postponed these trials until considerably after the April primary."

"But I feel that the banks now operating are entitled to fair treatment for the general benefit of each and every community. If any one of my readers has tried to carry on ordinary business in a town or locality where there were no banks, he must realize what a tremendous barrier to normal business relations existed and what a great inconvenience the lack of banks truly is. Certainly it ought to be possible right now, if there be reasonable cooperation, to reestablish certain banking institutions which closed merely because of general business conditions or following 'runs.' In any case there should be an end to this inciting, merely because of political ambitions, and which tends to create distrust in all banks and bankers. This sort of thing frightens the public into hoarding funds in old stockpiles, and into believing that the institutions with which it has dealt for years are unsound."

Trained Dogs Head Vaudeville At the Catlow

Heading the four acts of vaudeville which the Catlow theatre, Barrington, will present next Sunday afternoon and evening is Du Bell's Pets, a troupe of trained dogs. The marvelous tricks performed by these dogs have earned for Mr. Du Bell playing time in the larger of variety theatres, both in this and foreign countries. This act will prove a genuine surprise to vaudeville fans, and will provide sound did entertainment for kiddies and grown-ups alike. In addition there will be three other acts, including sensational roping, singing dancing and comedy. The screen feature for this bill will be "The Hatchet Man," featuring Edward G. (Little Caesar) Robinson. The theme of this picture is intensely absorbing. It is a story of a triangular love—of the mature man who takes a beautiful young bride only to lose her to a youth of her own age. The story is focused from the oriental angle. It is based on the inflexible vows of a tong hatchet man. The code which binds him involves death and destruction to tong enemies—a silent striking which leaves terror and madness in its wake. To picture therefore has a weird quality which holds the movie-goer spellbound, thrilled by virtue of its continuously intense moments. Loretta Young and Tully Marshall head the supporting cast. Constance Bennett's new picture, "Lady With A Past" will be the feature offering at the Catlow theatre next week Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The following two nights, Thursday and Friday of next week, the Catlow will present the all-German talking and singing film, "Die Lustigen Weiber von Wien" (The Merry Wives of Vienna). Made by the same German Producers that fashioned "Sissi" and "The Merry Wives of Vienna," this new picture has a charm and beauty even surpassing that of the "Hearts in Waltz-Time" film. Its tale of the ten beautiful sisters and their maneuvers to save themselves from a new stepmother is really merry, and the atmosphere of old Vienna is an ever present delight. "Die Lustigen Weiber von Wien" is rated as one of the six best films in all languages.

Fleawort

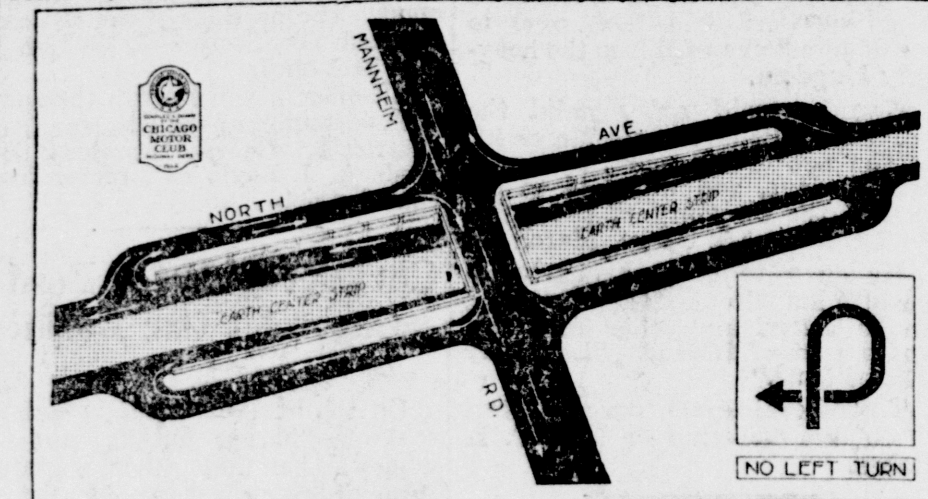

The common name for the seeds of the Plantago Psyllium is fleawort, and they belong to the herb family. The name originated in England. This species of plantago grows in the south of Europe and in northern Africa. The seeds are about 3 mm in length, 1 to 1.5 mm in width, convex on one side and concave on the other. They are dark reddish brown in color and closely resemble flaxseed in medicinal properties.

Chicago Motor Club Tells How to Make Turns

With the completion of a number of grade separations in the Chicago metropolitan area, it has been noted that some motorists are confused as to the manner in which left turns at these intersections should be executed.

With a view to clarifying this problem, the Chicago Motor club has drawn some sketches which illustrate how left turns should be made on some of the more common types of grade separations now in use.

"In most instances, such as at North avenue and Mannheim road, the so-called left turn should be executed by driving past the point where the two highways intersect, and then bear constantly to the right until the other highway is reached," the motor club declared.

"In effect, one makes three right turns, in order to achieve the same end as though an ordinary left turn had been made. The symbol on the highway sign for making a left turn by means of three right turns is an arrow, bent in the form of a loop, and pointing left. This illustrates the maneuver, which avoids the path of cross-traffic. Inasmuch as highway engineers are seeking to standardize this type of grade separation, we urge motorists to familiarize themselves with it."

"Some separations, however, have been built which necessitate left turns across the path of cross-traffic. Usually these will be found at intersections where land values were so high that the separation had to be somewhat condensed."

THEATRE

Maurice Chevalier
Now at McVickers

Inimitable, incomparable, irresistible Maurice Chevalier is playing havoc with the hearts of Chicagoans in "One Hour With You," his latest picture now on the screen of McVickers Theater.

In "One Hour With You" you have Chevalier as you like him best—singing, loving, laughing and a little naughty. This time he is a doctor—a specialist who gives all of his feminine patients heart-trouble. Their temperatures go up when he feels their pulse—and his boudoir technique leaves little to be desired.

Chevalier has a great cast assisting him including his sweet-heart of "The Love Parade," Jeanette MacDonald, Genevieve Tobin, Charles Ruggles, Roland Young, Josephine Dunn and George Barbier.

"One Hour With You" was directed by Ernst Lubitsch who was personally responsible for Chevalier's past pictures. Many delightful songs are heard in "One Hour With You," but never does any one of these interrupt the gay momentum of the story, each song having definite plot value and furthering the progress of the plot.

"The Crowd Roars"

On Chicago Screen

"The Crowd Roars," one of the greatest thrill dramas ever shown on any screen, will be the feature attraction at the Chicago theater, Friday, April 1.

"The Crowd Roars" has four of the screen's greatest artists—James Cagney as the fightest racing fool who ever cracked up; Joan Blondell as the peppiest blonde who ever broke a heart; Ann Dvorak—she'll tug at your heart strings; and Eric Linden—a demon for action on the speedway. "The Crowd Roars" is a smashing, crashing race track romance. James Cagney has a role different to any he has had in the past—that of a daredevil driver—grinning at death and laughing at love. Joan Blondell in the role you like her best—that of a wise-cracking blonde. The death-defying scenes were actually photographed on the great tracks of America, with the World's foremost drivers. See "The Crowd Roars"—one of the great thrill dramas of all time. On the stage is a spectacular show, "Once Upon A Time," with this great cast of entertainers, Raye, Ellis and La Rue, The Understudies; Keith Wilbur, Astonishing Interpretations; Dorothea and Helene Blossom, Cut-ups from the story book; Franklin Record, Romantic Songster and the Sunkist Beauties in a breath-taking dinosaur dance.

POLITICAL SHORTS

DEMOCRATIC

Judge Henry Horner is serving his fifth consecutive term as judge of the Probate Court of Cook county, the largest in the world under one man. In the seventeen years that he has been head of that court—a $200,000-a-year business—he created methods of administration which have been copied throughout the country. Under this administration the court has returned a profit of $100,000 a year over all expenses.

World war veterans and their families throughout the nation know him as the author of the famous "Horner Plan" by which estates of fallen soldiers were handled without deductions for administration or legal service. Many were saved from poverty by his plan.

T. B. McGrath, Jr., who was president of the Mayfair State Bank which told its depositors to "come and get theirs" and paid out in cash dollar for dollar to every depositor, is candidate for Auditor of Public Accounts. If the praise received by Mr. McGrath from all over the country is recognized by the Democratic voters at primaries, he will receive the nomination despite the fact that another candidate by the same name appears upon the same ballot. Those desiring to vote for the Mayfair bank president who paid every depositor, should mark their ballots carefully for T. B. McGrath, Jr.

Country town district representatives of the Regular Democratic organization attended a meeting in the Crystal Room of the Hotel Sherman last Saturday. Cook County Commissioner Homer J. Byrd, district leader, stated that this is the first time that real representation has been secured in the country towns and that the well balanced state of the Regular Democratic party will be nominated at the primary April 12.

The name of Peter Bartz who is candidate for state treasurer is well known to the democrats of a few years ago. He has come out of retirement and is certain to rally to his support many of his former friends.

Mr. James J. Finerman is the regular democratic candidate for state representative of the 7th senatorial district. He has lived in the community all his life. Mr. Finerman says "The small property owner and taxpayer must be protected. Banking laws must be more stringent and a program of economy must be put in effect and the 18th Amendment must be repealed and personal liberty returned to the American people." For the past five years Mr. Finerman has served as a member of the Calumet Memorial park board.

Edward J. Hughes, Regular Democratic candidate for secretary of state, has the support of many war veterans. Mr. Hughes is a former member of the board of review of Cook county.

State Treasurer, Edward J. Barrett, Regular Democratic candidate for State Auditor, is the only ex-service man seeking this office and has the endorsement of the United Democratic Service Mens' organization.

Scott W. Lucas, Havana, Ill., candidate for U. S. Senator, was twice State's Attorney in Mason county. He played professional baseball in order to secure funds for his education. He is an officer in the reserve corps. Mr. Lucas is running on a platform of tariff reduction, enacting the principles of the McNary-Haugen bill, and repeal of the 18th Amendment. He is opposed to the acts of what he calls the "Chicago slatemakers," and has been campaigning with Michael Igoe, candidate for governor, and Judge Truman Snell, candidate for attorney general.

Judge Otto Kerner, Regular Democratic candidate for attorney general, was born in Chicago in 1884. In 1911 he was appointed prosecuting attorney by Mayor Carter H. Harrison and served the old 12th ward as alderman. From 1915 until 1927, he was a master in chancery of the Circuit court. Judge Kerner is married and has three children. At present he is judge of the Appellate court of the First district.

Leyden Township and the Elmwood Park Organization went on record last week endorsing every one of the regular democratic candidates. William McNeerney is the district leader and sees a great future for Judge Henry Horner for governor, and Senator Thomas J. Courtney for States Attorney.

Bruce Campbell, of East St. Louis, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, this week began his intensive campaign in Cook county. "The main issue is whether Cermak's machine methods are to be extended into the Government of Illinois," says Mr. Campbell.

In a recent statement John J. Raskob chairman of the Democratic national committee, assuming the role of spokesman for the President, declared that Mr. Hoover would run on a west platform if necessary. Secretary of War Hurley made answer as follows:

"Mr. Raskob is in a position to speak much more accurately of the amount of money that he and his associates have spent slandering and misrepresenting the President of the United States than he is as the President's views of the eighteenth amendment." Home Town Activities.

In Spare Moments

One thing that renders conversation difficult is the fact that much of it is carried on by people who, having a little spare time, think they will proceed to settle questions that have puzzled the world for centuries.—Washington Star.

Lawyers Organized To Boost Candidacy of Judge Henry Horner

Many lawyers throughout the state have rallied to the support of Judge Henry Horner, Regular Democratic candidate for Governor, by forming the Lawyers' Henry Horner for Governor club. Carl R. Latham, former president of the Chicago Bar association, is chairman of the club, which will hold meetings in downstate cities and towns during the next two weeks.

Mr. Latham declares that Judge Horner "answers the call that is everywhere for a statesman and not for a mere spoils politician." He dwelt upon Judge Horner's "brilliant record" in the Probate court, recalling that the Chicago Bar association enthusiastically endorsed Judge Horner each time he stood for re-election.

"These are surely times that try men's souls," said Mr. Latham. "In the whole history of Illinois there has never been a time when a man who stood above the crowd was needed as he is today. It is restoration of public confidence that these trying times demand. Smiling faces in the city and state have been replaced by those marked by care and worry, and optimism has given way to a general feeling of pessimism regarding our political affairs."

"We who know him best have seen for many years that stream of humanity that passes before him in the Probate court. There he has learned to be a great administrator and there he has qualified as a great executive. We are proud of the Probate Court in Cook county. We hold it out as a model of Probate courts throughout the world. The patience and the understanding that Judge Horner has exhibited in that court is our guaranty that he can understand the problems of our state. During my services in the Bar association as president and as a member of the board of managers, he was always in sympathy with our aims to better the administration of justice."

"Judge Horner's nomination and election as Governor will assure a thoroughly businesslike administration that will be second to none in the history of the state, and one of which all citizens will have reason to be justly proud."

William Haines on Oriental Screen

William Haines will be seen in his first straight dramatic role when "Are You Listening" opens a week's engagement on the screen of the Oriental Theater Friday, April 1.

"Are You Listening" shows you what actually transpires behind the scenes in a broadcasting station and has for its theme an intensely dramatic story.

The story centers on a continuity writer who is unhappily married, but whose shrewish wife refuses to grant him a divorce so that he may marry the radio singer he loves. The situation brings about a highly dramatic conflict in which the writer is eventually accused of the murder of his wife and is forced to hide from the police.

And on the stage is a gay production that sets the pace for the year called "Frolics of 1932" with a great cast of entertainers including Steve Freda and Johnny Palace, world famous guitarist and Broadway's popular harmonist; Pasquali Brothers, three unusual men; Joyce Coles, America's foremost danseuse; Nicholas Daks, the whirlwind dancer; Carlos Peterson, the human top; and Chester Hale's frolicking dancers.

"The Blond Captive" At the Roosevelt

Among the many remarkable shots shown in "The Blond Captive" now playing at the Roosevelt Theater, is one of mammoth turtles in their mating season.

The camera caught some unusual shots that are positively amazing. Hundreds of giant turtles, some over two hundred years old and weighing between two and three hundred pounds are shown in the unreeling of this picture. There is no egg depression in the Antipodes, because an actual count shows a turtle laying eighty-five eggs in less than three minutes. These eggs are as large as billiard balls, and it is one of those things that must be seen to be believed. Unlike our common hen, the mother turtle does not hatch her eggs, but buries them in the sand and the tropical sun and the heat of the sand hatches them.

This scene is only one of the highlights in "The Blond Captive" and that is not sufficient, the ride through the dangerous whirlpools, the spearing of a giant sea cow, the exotic tribal dances and other unusual things are more than surprising.

POLITICAL SHORTS

REPUBLICAN

Former Governor Frank O. Lowden joins Omer N. Custer, in a demand for an amendment to the Constitution of Illinois "that will make it possible for this state to join other progressive states in disbanding of the general property tax," as Mr. Custer's platform reads. "Real estate has become undesirable as an investment because of the high taxes assessed against it."

Former Congressman M. A. Michaelson of Chicago, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from this Seventh Congressional district.

An Ex-Service Man's committee, with Gen. Milton J. Foreman and other military notables in command, is making a state-wide campaign to secure nomination of Omer N. Custer as the Republican candidate for Governor. General Foreman was the first National Commander of the American Legion, and is a former Commander of the Illinois National guard.

Announcement is made of the unanimous indorsement by the representatives of the railroad workers of the country of Newton Jenkins, Chicago war veteran, for United States senator from Illinois. This is the joint action of the chief executives of the twenty-one standard railroad labor organizations of the country. For three days last week behind closed doors in Washington, the chief executives, representing several hundred men who constitute the employees of the railroads of the country, met to consider policies and candidates for the important 1932 elections.

During three years of State's Attorney Swanson's term, records kept by the clerks of County, State and City courts show that the proportion of convictions to acquittals has been 23 per cent higher under Mr. Swanson than under any previous state's attorney.

The endorsement of the candidacy of State's Attorney John A. Swanson for renomination and re-election and the candidacy of John E. Northup for the nomination as Attorney General has been made by the Norwegian-American Republican Club, 2414 North Kedzie avenue. This club, which has a membership of 3,000 members, also announces their endorsement of Jacob D. Allen for Clerk of the Superior Court and Harry E. Hoff for County Recorder.

Harry G. Wright, of De Kalb, candidate for State auditor, was four terms state senator, three times chairman of the appropriations committee, a banker, world war veteran, and Republican state leader in campaigns of 1924, '26, '28 and '30. Mr. Wright is manager of the Custer campaign for governor, associated with C. Wayland Brooks for State treasurer, and Judge Robert E. Gentzel for attorney general.

Mr. Custer and all these candidates will spend the remaining days of the campaign in Cook county.

John E. Northup, the "fighting prosecutor," Republican candidate for Attorney General, launched his downstate campaign in earnest this week.

The La Follette weekly, "The Progressive," warmly recommends the candidacy of Newton Jenkins for U. S. Senator from Illinois. Mr. Jenkins is a "Congregationalist, Mason, Republican, Veteran of Foreign Wars, First Commander of Victory Post No. 7, the first American Legion post organized in Chicago." He resides in Jefferson Park.

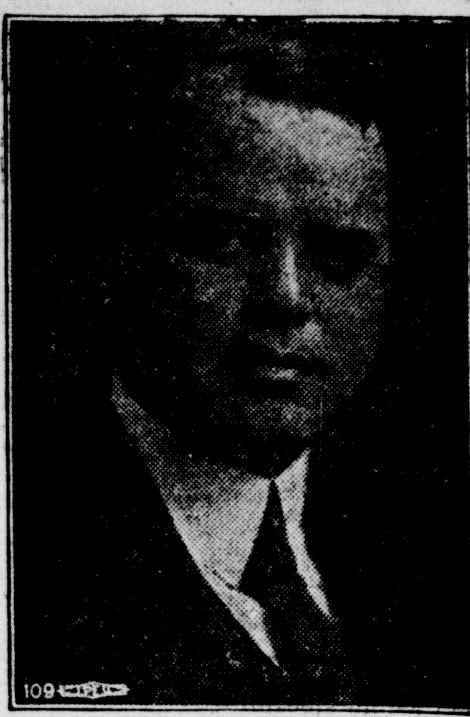

Olaf E. Ray, candidate for delegate to the Republican National convention from the Seventh Congressional district, is an old Progressive Republican "war horse." He was with the Roosevelt party in 1912, and in 1924 was a Progressive elector for Robert M. La Follette.

William H. Stratton, of Ingleside, secretary of state, is a candidate for renomination. "Stratton... is the only secretary of state in the history of Illinois who has paid into the state treasury all interest earned on funds in his hands, without monthly itemized statements showing the amount of deposits and the amounts of interest paid by all the banks holding money belonging to the secretary's office," writes the Waukegan News-Sun.

Charles W. Hadley of Wheaton was born on a farm in DuPage county, his grandfather having pioneered there in 1838. He attended Wheaton college, and graduated at Northwestern University Law school. He served as State's attorney in DuPage county, 1906 to 1920, prosecuting the famous "Tango Murder" case; was assistant attorney general of Illinois for seven years; acted as special prosecutor at Rock Island in 1922, when law and order broke down in that county. For two and a half years he was chairman of the Illinois Commerce commission. He is a trustee in the Gary Memorial church at Wheaton and a Knight Templar.

Republicanism is not very much in the public eye, and has opened no headquarters in Arlington Heights. The Swanson-Northup organization is making no recommendations for state officers other than for Mr. Northup for attorney general.

"Speaker Garner is credited with saying that Hoover led us into the greatest panic this country or the world has ever known." Barring its lack of truthfulness, its unfairness and bristling partisan spirit, and the speakers' assumption that any man could lead this country and the world into such a panic, the statement appears to be all right. John Nance Garner is a democrat and is running true to form.—Lincoln (Neb.) Journal.

"Swanson Made Good;" Business Men Support Him for Renomination

The Business Men's Non-Partisan League, an independent non-factional organization formed solely for the purpose of supporting State's Attorney John A. Swanson in his campaign for re-election, has opened its headquarters at 134 No. LaSalle street, according to announcement made by Jules F. Cornelius, 4554 Broadway, president of the League, who is prominent in up-town affairs, and will be in charge there. Col. Noble Brandon Judah is vice-president of the League; C. Lynn Coy, 2226 N. Racine avenue, vice president of Raymond Heer company, is its secretary; and Herman Nelson, president Nelson Roofing company, is treasurer. Mr. Nelson resides at 5736 N. Sacramento avenue.

The executive committeemen are all well known business, professional and civic leaders from various communities of the city and county.

In announcing the purposes of the League, Mr. Cornelius, who led the fight to clean up the Board of Review and Assessors two years ago as a candidate for the former body, said:

"In forming a business men's organization to aid Judge Swanson in his campaign for reelection to the highly important office of state's attorney, it is our intention to steer clear of factional politics, and to promote the candidacy of Judge Swanson on his record. The state's attorney recently made public the facts relating to his three years' tenure of office; and his accomplishments are so many, and his improvement in the office over that of his predecessors so marked, that we feel it our duty, as independent business and professional men from all parts of the county, to give him our loyal and active aid."

Swanson Cleans Mess
"Judge Swanson took hold at a time when conditions in the State's Attorney's office were in terrible shape. He had to clean up the place and start over, and despite the fact that during his first term the duties of the office have increased many fold, funds have been low and the inheritance of past evils almost beyond enduring. Mr. Swanson has made good. For instance, during the three years of his term as public prosecutor there have been 8,209 persons convicted in the Criminal Courts of Cook county—a greater number than in any four year period in the past."

"It is our belief that the people of Cook county do not care to see the office of State's Attorney go back into the besmirched hands in which it was held just before Swanson was elected. As it stands now, his principal primary rival is a man openly sponsored as the factional candidate of the former State's Attorney who was overwhelmed by the voters in 1928, when Judge Swanson was elected by a decisive majority."

The Business Men's Non-Partisan League will devote its entire effort towards aiding the Swanson candidacy. Mr. Cornelius emphasized, and will not mix in the battles going on for other state or county offices.

"Sky Devils" Spectacular Air Thrill, United Artists

"Sky Devils" is a lightning-fast comedy, based on the thrilling and romantic adventures of three American aviators during the World War. The leading roles are played by Spencer Tracy, William Boyd, George Cooper and Ann Dvorak.

An air-fleet of 55 planes was used in filming the sensational flying scenes in "Sky Devils" and in one sequence alone 50 ships are shown in thrilling combat above the clouds.

The story of "Sky Devils" has many unusual twists, and the dialogue sparkles with humor. It moves at a terrific tempo, from start to finish, and piles laugh upon laugh, and thrill upon thrill, as the action unreels on the screen.

An IGEOE VICTORY

means a victory for Democracy, free government and the rule of the people, as opposed to machine dictated politics.

A. J. Cermak has issued orders to the Democrats of Illinois, which those democrats are not going to obey. They are going to VOTE FOR IGEOE.

A. J. Cermak and his hand picked organization has cracked the whip over the heads of committeemen, job holders and others. Some are forced to obey orders, but there are others who will wear Igoe buttons on primary day and will VOTE FOR IGEOE. The A. J. Cermak organization have taken themselves the privilege of dictating to the Democrats of Cook County and Illinois whom shall be nominated at the primaries. There is a great mass of voters who are going to do their own picking by casting a VOTE FOR IGEOE.

The voters are doing their own thinking these days and they are not going to agree with Mr. Cermak. They are going to VOTE FOR IGEOE.

The Igoe candidacy gains greater momentum as each day passes. Leaving downstate in the hands of his friends, Mr. Igoe is spending the remainder of the time until the primary election on April 12th, campaigning in Cook County, where more and more people say that they are going to VOTE FOR IGEOE.

Leading democrats of Cook county as well as those downstate have in the past few days thrown their support to Igoe in opposition to the Cermak picked slate of democratic candidates.

They realize that Igoe is certain to get the nomination, despite the desperate fight being made to defeat him in Cook county. They are also going to VOTE FOR IGEOE.

Straw votes now being taken by newspapers in various sections of the state indicate that Igoe will win the election by a wide margin. Polls taken in Chicago have shown that Igoe will break even with the Cermak candidate there and other polls conducted downstate indicate that he will get almost fifty per cent of the down state vote which will mean a big majority VOTE FOR IGEOE.

"Mr. Igoe's record shows that the laws for which he has worked and voted were such as would benefit the people of the state and his reputation for fairness and square dealing makes him as acceptable to the people downstate as to those of his own county and district," so states Mrs. Brennan, widow of the late George Brennan, one of the national leaders of the Democratic party.

"Mr. Igoe is a candidate for governor by request," says Sheriff William D. Meyering of Cook county, in endorsing Mr. Igoe. "Never in history has a man been asked to run for governor by a body of citizens more representative of his party in the state. If ever an office sought the man, the governorship of Illinois has sought Michael L. Igoe."
